The Annual Fall Appeal letter and census was sent last month. Thank you to all of those parishioners who have already returned their census form and donation. It is most sincerely appreciated as this is the only major Stewardship Appeal for our parish. We understand this is a busy time of year, so reminder letters will be mailed this month for those who have not had an opportunity to participate in the Appeal. If a reminder letter crosses with your census/donation return, please accept our apology. Thank you again for your continued generosity to IHM!

2018 FIRST QUARTER (JAN –MARCH) PREFERENCE & AVAILABILITY FORM

All Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers and Hospitality Ministers, please complete the Preference & Availability form online. The parish website is www.ihmphila.org

We are asking that all parishioners, school parents and visitors be mindful & careful when driving through the IHM parking lot. The lot and playground are in use by the school children during recess, Mass days, CARES and gym on any given weekday and at various times. School hours are 7AM-6PM.

As we move toward the conclusion of the Church's Liturgical year, our liturgies start to make a decisive shift in theme. The scripture readings focus more on the end-times. Today in the readings, Wisdom is presented as a central and necessary value. The wisdom that we need will enable us to be ready for the second coming of the Lord. It also will enable us to be the best followers of Jesus that we can be in the present also.

The Book of Wisdom is probably the last book written chronologically in the Old Testament. Evidence indicates it was written in the second century before Christ. The purpose of the book was to build up the faith of its Jewish readers. Some readers would be pious Jews and the author encouraged their faith amid the troubles of life. Other readers were probably less convinced of Israel's faith and became captivated by Greek philosophy. For them, the book would support the traditional faith against developments of science and free thinking, reminding them of the nobility of their religion in comparison with that of their pagan neighbors. For those readers who had abandoned Judaism, the book called them back to God. For Gentile readers the book pointed to the folly of idol worship.

In the Gospel of Matthew today, we hear the parable of the ten bridesmaids. It is unique to Matthew's gospel. This parable contains many features already present in previous parables. The ten bridesmaids are divided into two groups: the foolish and the wise. The foolish ones have made no provisions for lighting their torches. The wise ones have made provision. The story assumes the Palestinian custom of the bridegrooms going to the bride's house in order to make the marital agreement with his father-in-law. When the bridegroom returns with the bride to his own home, the wedding feast can begin.

The bridesmaids are expected to meet the bridegroom and the bride as they approach the house. The foolish bridesmaids are sure that the bridegroom will not arrive at night, but the wise ones recognize that he can arrive at any time! The foolish bridesmaids are caught by surprise and are unable to obtain oil in time for the beginning of the wedding feast. The door is then locked and they are refused entrance. The lesson is constant watchfulness.

The message of the Gospel is clear. Stay awake and ready yourselves for the coming of the Lord. What do we think we need to do to prepare for the Lord's coming? What about our lamps? We should reflect on the flickering flame, the light of Christ, that each of us received at our Baptism. Our individual flame was lit from the one Light of Christ. We (most likely through our parents and godparents) are then given the admonition that it be kept burning brightly throughout our lives. Meditate on the words "wise" "ready" and "awake" today.

Father Casey

SPONSOR GUIDELINES FOR BAPTISM/CONFIRMATION

Church law requires that Baptism and Confirmation sponsors themselves frequent the sacraments regularly.

When someone who does not meet that requirement is designated as a sponsor, it is always an unpleasant (and frequently painful) experience for the priest, the parents of the child, and most especially for the person designated.

The reason a sponsor must be a practicing Catholic is that a sponsor is expected to pay special attention to the efforts of the person who is being baptized or confirmed to live a Christian life in keeping with the teachings of the Catholic Church. In the case of Baptism, sponsors are also expected to assist the parents of the child in their Christian duty as parents, by offering them support through good example, encouragement and prayer.

A sponsor should be a registered parishioner of IHM for at least 6 months. The person should also have received all the Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation. The Sponsor must be at least 16 years of age. The Sponsor should also participate at Mass each Sunday. If married, the sponsor must also be in a valid Sacramental marriage.

By issuing a Sponsor Certificate, a priest assures members of the faithful that a person is a Catholic in good standing who is eligible to serve as a sponsor for Baptism and/or Confirmation.

Please contact the Rectory during regular business hours to inquire about Sponsor Certificates.

IHM SPIRITUAL RESOURCE CENTER & FREE LIBRARY

The Center provides our parish with spiritual books, CD's, pamphlets and booklets, many of which were created by top Catholic authors, and speakers. We can use these resources to increase our knowledge of the FAITH. It's called Faith Formation and we are all expected to pursue it and develop it during our earthly pilgrimage. These resources are free. Any donation will be used to bring similar resources to other parishes. The Center is located just off the Main Lobby in the room formerly used for baptisms. In that same room you will find the IHM Free Lending Library. Generous parishioner have donated well over 400 books covering a wide range of Faith related topics, many by well known authors.

We need to know our Faith before we can share it.
