CELEBRATION OF THE SACRAMENTS

Baptism - The Sacrament of Baptism is celebrated on Sundays at 12:30 PM.

Pre-Jordan - Instruction/sacramental preparation for parents of children to be baptized is held every other month. The meeting is usually held in the Sacred Heart Chapel, except during Lent, when it is held in Church. Parents of children to be baptized should contact Mrs. Denise Schmidt in the parish office between the hours of 9am and 4pm to register. The next date for the Parent Pre-Jordan is Monday, July 18 at 7 pm in the Chapel. Pre-Jordan sacramental preparation is required for each child to be baptized at IHM. Please see the guidelines for choosing a sponsor on page 6 of the Parish Bulletin.

Marriage - To adequately prepare to celebrate the Sacrament of Marriage, Archdiocesan policy requires that couples contact one of the priests of the parish at least 6 months in advance.

IHM offers a one day Pre-Cana Seminar that assists couples in preparation for their upcoming marriage. The Pre-Cana is conducted twice a year (Spring and Fall). There is no Pre-Cana Seminar planned at this time. Please call Denise Schmidt, parish secretary at 215-483-1000 for further information.

RCIA - Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. This is the program for those interested in initiation into the Catholic Faith. Information is also available for those who may not have completed the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation). Please contact the Director of Religious Education, Mary Anne Kostic-King -215-483-4266

Pastor's Page

The starting point of the Scripture readings this Sunday is the notion of “hospitality”. Hospitality was a solemn obligation in Biblical times. For a traveler in the wilderness, especially in the nomadic society in which Abraham lived, it was a matter of survival, of life and death. A refusal to extend basic hospitality would be like a death sentence.

I would recommend to your summer reading the Saga of Abraham. Abraham’s story is contained in Genesis from Chapters 12-25. Abraham is the father of biblical faith. He was the first to hear God’s call. God promises that Abraham’s offspring will become a great nation, a blessing to the world.

The natural problem with this promise is that Abraham’s wife Sarah is past childbearing age and in fact has never borne Abraham an heir. In today’s passage, Abraham is sitting at the entrance of his tent in the heat of the day, when he is approached by 3 strangers, who we later learn represent God.

Abraham and Sarah offer hospitality out of pure kindness. Water to bathe their feet, rest in the shade, rolls made by Sarah, eating a choice tender steer. Abraham sits with them, he was attentive to his guests. They did not realize these 3 mysterious messengers represented God. They had a marvelous message. When they returned in about a year, Sarah would have a son.

This message and story was still fresh in the minds of the Jews almost 1,500 years later in New Testament times. The Letter to the Hebrews referenced this Abraham story from Genesis.

“Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers—for by doing so, some have unknowingly entertained angels.” Heb. 3:2

In the Luke’s Gospel today (10:38-42) Jesus entered a village where a woman named Martha welcomed him. Martha was busy with all the details of hospitality. She was “burdened with much serving” as the Gospel tells us. While she was going about all this business, her sister Mary “sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak”. Martha takes exception to this and asks the Lord to tell her to help.

As a guest it would probably be the prudent thing not to get in the middle of a dispute between two sisters! Jesus however, tries to calm Martha down. “Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things” He makes the point however, that there are priorities. He does not disparage the duties of hospitality. Hospitality is indeed important and has its rewards. Perhaps where Martha has crossed the line is in grumbling about it? Martha was dutiful but maybe a bit self-absorbed?

Jesus is not saying to avoid the duties of hospitality by any means. There is a balance. Christian discipleship is first and foremost personal adherence to Jesus. There must be time to listen to his Word, that is “the one thing required” This is the better part. Activity is important, the work of the apostolate is important. This relationship with Jesus then shows itself in loving service.

Like Mary we have listened to Jesus’ Word. Like Martha, we have prepared for the banquet, bringing ourselves to offer and unite ourselves to Jesus’ sacrifice.

Parish Resources

SPONSOR GUIDELINES FOR BAPTISM/ CONFIRMATION

Church law requires that Baptism and Confirmation sponsors themselves frequent the sacraments regularly.

When someone who does not meet that requirement is designated as a sponsor, it is always an unpleasant (and frequently painful) experience for the priest, the parents of the child, and most especially for the person designated.

The reason a sponsor must be a practicing Catholic is that a sponsor is expected to pay special attention to the efforts of the person who is being baptized or confirmed to live a Christian life in keeping with the teachings of the Catholic Church. In the case of Baptism, sponsors are also expected to assist the parents of the child in their Christian duty as parents, by offering them support through good example, encouragement and prayer.

A sponsor should be a registered parishioner of IHM for at least 6 months. The person should also have received all the Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation. The Sponsor must be at least 16 years of age. The Sponsor should also participate at Mass each Sunday. If married, the sponsor must also be in a valid Sacramental marriage.

By issuing a Sponsor Certificate, a priest assures members of the faithful that a person is a Catholic in good standing who is eligible to serve as a sponsor for Baptism and/or Confirmation. Please contact the Rectory during regular business hours to inquire about Sponsor Certificates.
