Pastor's Page

Sunday gospels for the remainder of the liturgical year will take place while Jesus is on the journey to Jerusalem. Luke depicts Jesus journey to Jerusalem as a fulfillment of his destiny. He was conscious of his part in his mission and the possible danger this entailed. Yet he was “resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem”.

We see the focus of Jesus turning from this ministry of teaching and preaching in Galilee to Jerusalem. Galilee was located in the northern part of Israel. Jesus is now moving to the south, the province of Judea – in which Jerusalem is located. Jerusalem has been the center of the Hebrews life and worship since David made Jerusalem the capital around 1000 B.C. Jerusalem is the city that kills prophets and stones those sent to it.

It is no wonder that on this journey to the Passion, Jesus outlines the severity of discipleship; one could be homeless, separated from family. “Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.” (Luke 9:58) Like Elisha the prophet in the first reading, we cannot look back. Like Jesus he was “resolute”. There would be no turning back.

In the first reading today, we are introduced to Elisha, son of Shaphat, who is plowing a field when the prophet Elijah throws his cloak over him, symbolizing the sharing of Elijah’s prophetic office. Elisha will be present when Elijah is taken up to heaven and is given a double portion of his prophetic spirit (2 Kings2: 1-18) In response to the initial prophetic invitation, Elisha wishes first to bid farewell to his family. Elijah’s rebuke spurs Elisha to a complete commitment.

James and John do not fully understand Jesus teaching when they ask to call down fire on the village that rejected them. It takes time to fully understand fully what following Jesus entails.

We need to recommit ourselves to the promises we made when we first said yes to following Jesus. In the “Direction of Intention” St. Francis De Sales asks us to give to God THIS day, to offer God the good we will do or accept the difficulty we might encounter THIS day.

Follow Jesus resolutely. That is what the Morning Offering Prayer was all about that we used to make in grade school. That should still be operative for us today ! Live our commitment to Him, Today! Not “later”, not “after”, not “until.” His Spirit will help us face any difficulty (cross) that comes.

The Morning Offering Prayer can help us in our focus:

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer You my prayers, works, joys and sufferings of this day for all the intentions of Your Sacred Heart, in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world in reparation for my sins, for the intentions of all my relatives and friends, and in particular for the intentions of the Holy Father. Amen.

This prayer has numerous variations, but the main idea is to start your day giving to God everything you may encounter during the upcoming day.

Father Casey

Parish Resources

SPONSOR GUIDELINES FOR BAPTISM/ CONFIRMATION

Church law requires that Baptism and Confirmation sponsors themselves frequent the sacraments regularly.

When someone who does not meet that requirement is designated as a sponsor, it is always an unpleasant (and frequently painful) experience for the priest, the parents of the child, and most especially for the person designated.

The reason a sponsor must be a practicing Catholic is that a sponsor is expected to pay special attention to the efforts of the person who is being baptized or confirmed to live a Christian life in keeping with the teachings of the Catholic Church. In the case of Baptism, sponsors are also expected to assist the parents of the child in their Christian duty as parents, by offering them support through good example, encouragement and prayer.

A sponsor should be a registered parishioner of IHM for at least 6 months. The person should also have received all the Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation. The Sponsor must be at least 16 years of age. The Sponsor should also participate at Mass each Sunday. If married, the sponsor must also be in a valid Sacramental marriage.

By issuing a Sponsor Certificate, a priest assures members of the faithful that a person is a Catholic in good standing who is eligible to serve as a sponsor for Baptism and/or Confirmation. Please contact the Rectory during regular business hours to inquire about Sponsor Certificates.
