Pastor's Page

As we move toward the end of the Easter season, our liturgies begin to turn from reflection on Jesus' resurrection to our mission as baptized followers of Christ. The message of our celebration this week could not be clearer. The word "love" appears in the second reading and the Gospel a total of eighteen times. Repetition can be the best form for learning.

As we move toward Pentecost we will be hearing more about the Holy Spirit. In today's installment from the Acts of the Apostles, the passage speaks of the Holy Spirit coming upon those listening to Peter. How the Holy Spirit manifested in us, is a good question to reflect on today.

The first reading narrates the Holy Spirit's endorsement of the Gentile mission. Peter has been summoned to preach in the house of a Gentile centurion, Cornelius, who is introduced as a devout God-fearer. In a vision, Peter had been told that God had made all food clean, indicating that those who did not participate of the kosher diet were nonetheless welcomed by God. The circumcised believers are astounded that the Gentiles were also to share in the same spirit, thus bringing to fruition the prophecy of Simeon: "For my eyes have witnessed your saving deed displayed for all the people to see, a revealing light to the Gentiles and the glory of your people Israel." (Luke 29-32.)

Acts sometimes is referred to as the "Gospel of the Holy Spirit". This is truly good news. In the gentile Cornelius' conversation, a surprised Peter begins to understand that "God shows no partiality". The Spirit welcomes believers from beyond Israel's borders and even works outside the community hierarchy and liturgy.

In the gospel today, Jesus challenges his disciples to love one another, "as God loves us!" The classic definition of Christian love is, 'willing the good of another'. This is a self-sacrificing love. It is putting the good of another person before ourselves. We love one another, because love is of God. Jesus shows us how to do this. It is typical to think of love as a feeling, the way we feel about a spouse, a parent, a child, a close friend. Yes, this is love but it is not Christian love. Love in this sense becomes part of our Christian character. As a part of our character it flows out of us when we interact with each other. Remember, Jesus began the Last Supper by washing the feet of the apostles, then telling them to do the same. This is the way we are to love one another.

Thursday we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord. We have reached the end of another special period of 40 days. This time represents a period of testing or judgment or preparation. For example, Jesus after his baptism in the Jordan by John, went out into the desert for forty days to prepare for his public ministry. While the gospels mention several post resurrection appearances by Jesus, it is only the Acts of the Apostles that specifically mentions forty days: "In the time after his suffering he showed them in many convincing ways that he was alive, appearing to them over the course of forty days and speaking to them about the reign of God" (Acts 1:3).

Just like we had the special time of Lent to prepare us to celebrate the Lord's resurrection, we have now have had a special time with the Lord celebrating his Resurrection.

Each of the readings on Thursday presents us the mission that Jesus left to us. Mark's gospel in the liturgy of the Ascension gives us this challenge: "Go into the world and proclaim the gospel to every creature."

Let us remember the words of St. Francis Assisi that are very appropriate to think about today. "Witness for Christ each day, and if necessary use words."

Parish Resources

SPONSOR GUIDELINES FOR BAPTISM/ CONFIRMATION

Church law requires that Baptism and Confirmation sponsors themselves frequent the sacraments regularly.

When someone who does not meet that requirement is designated as a sponsor, it is always an unpleasant (and frequently painful) experience for the priest, the parents of the child, and most especially for the person designated.

The reason a sponsor must be a practicing Catholic is that a sponsor is expected to pay special attention to the efforts of the person who is being baptized or confirmed to live a Christian life in keeping with the teachings of the Catholic Church. In the case of Baptism, sponsors are also expected to assist the parents of the child in their Christian duty as parents, by offering them support through good example, encouragement and prayer.

A sponsor should be a registered parishioner of IHM for at least 6 months. The person should also have received all the Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation. The Sponsor must be at least 16 years of age. The Sponsor should also participate at Mass each Sunday. If married, the sponsor must also be in a valid Sacramental marriage.

By issuing a Sponsor Certificate, a priest assures members of the faithful that a person is a Catholic in good standing who is eligible to serve as a sponsor for Baptism and/or Confirmation. Please contact the Rectory during regular business hours to inquire about Sponsor Certificates.
