Pastor's Page

I want to share with you this week a passage from the Documents of Vatican II. This is from the Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World, known in the Latin as "Gaudium et Spes". This is one of the last documents that was promulgated at the Council, promulgated by His Holiness Pope Paul VI, December 7, 1965. This passage speaks of the mystery of death and the response of faith.

Father Casey

In the face of death the enigma of human existence reaches its climax. Man is not only the victim of pain and the progressive deterioration of his body; he is also, and more deeply tormented by the fear of final extinction. But the instinctive judgment of his heart is right when he shrinks from and rejects the idea of a total collapse and the definitive end of his own person. He carries within him the seed of eternity, which cannot be reduced to matter alone, and so he rebels against death. All efforts of technology, however useful they may be, cannot calm his anxieties; the biological extension of his life span cannot satisfy the desire inescapably present in his heart for a life beyond this life.

Imagination is completely helpless when confronted with death. Yet the Church, instructed by divine revelation, affirms that man has been created by God for a destiny of happiness beyond the reach of earthly trials. Moreover, the Christian faith teaches that bodily death, to which man would not have been subject if he had not sinned, will be conquered; the almighty and merciful Savior will restore man to the wholeness that he had lost through his own fault. God has called man, and still calls him, to be unified in his whole being in perpetual communion with himself in the immortality of the divine life. This victory has been gained for us by the risen Christ, who by his own death has freed man from death.

Faith, presented with solid arguments, offers every thinking person the answer to his questionings concerning his future destiny. At the same time, it enables him to be one in Christ with his loved ones who have been taken from him by death and gives him hope that they have entered into the true life with God.

Certainly, the Christian is faced with the necessity and the duty of fighting against evil through many trials, and of undergoing death. But by entering into the paschal mystery and being made like Christ in death, he will look forward, strong in hope, to the resurrection.

This is true not only of Christians but also of all men of good will in whose heart grace is invisibly at work. Since Christ died for all people, and the ultimate vocation of the human person in fact one, that is a divine vocation, we must hold that the Holy Spirit offers to all the possibility of being united with this paschal mystery in a way known only to God.

Such is the great mystery of man, enlightening believers through Christian revelation. Through Christ and in Christ, light is thrown on the enigma of pain and death which overwhelms us without his Gospel to teach us. Christ is risen, destroying death by his own death; he has given us the free gift of life so that as sons in the Son we may cry out in the Spirit, saying: Abba, Father!

To Our Generous Donors to IHM's Saint Vincent DePaul Society

Over the years, parishioners' donations to the poor boxes and several large gifts have funded all of the financial support we have provided to poor individuals and families in need in our local area. Last year this support amounted to over $31,000. We have never been without funds to provide assistance to our nearby neighbors and this will continue to be our focus. However, we are considering making a donation to earthquake disaster victims in Puerto Rico and the Philippines through their local SVdP agencies. We would like your support of our idea, and we welcome your thoughts on it since some of your donations would be going to needy people outside of our local area. Be assured that under no circumstances would we place our local people in jeopardy. They will always come first.

We are requesting your comments on our proposal within the next week by calling the confidential SVdP Help Line (215-483-1000, then follow prompts). Leave your comment, or ask to speak with one of our members who will return your call. Your input will guide us in our consideration of a disaster donation.

Thank You,
SVdP Conference/IHM Parish

SPONSOR GUIDELINES FOR BAPTISM/ CONFIRMATION

Church law requires that Baptism and Confirmation sponsors themselves frequent the sacraments regularly.

When someone who does not meet that requirement is designated as a sponsor, it is always an unpleasant (and frequently painful) experience for the priest, the parents of the child, and most especially for the person designated.

The reason a sponsor must be a practicing Catholic is that a sponsor is expected to pay special attention to the efforts of the person who is being baptized or confirmed to live a Christian life in keeping with the teachings of the Catholic Church. In the case of Baptism, sponsors are also expected to assist the parents of the child in their Christian duty as parents, by offering them support through good example, encouragement and prayer.

A sponsor should be a registered parishioner of IHM for at least 6 months. The person should also have received all the Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation. The Sponsor must be at least 16 years of age. The Sponsor should also participate at Mass each Sunday. If married, the sponsor must also be in a valid Sacramental marriage.

By issuing a Sponsor Certificate, a priest assures members of the faithful that a person is a Catholic in good standing who is eligible to serve as a sponsor for Baptism and/or Confirmation. Please contact the Rectory during regular business hours to inquire about Sponsor Certificates.
